

Survey of Statewide Needs for Services in Developmental Disabilities

Researchers at the Vanderbilt Kennedy Center in collaboration with our DD Network partners are investigating the need for services across Tennessee for people with developmental disabilities.

We need your help.

We plan to use your ideas to help shape our work for the next 5 years as we help people with disabilities to be independent and fully included in their hometowns.

Please fill out our online survey to tell us what help you think is needed.
It should take about 15 minutes. No one will know what you said.
It is your choice to tell us what you think.

The online survey is available at:
<http://tinyurl.com/ofnbov>

We invite responses from:

- Adults with or without disabilities
- Parents of children with disabilities
- Adults who work with persons with disabilities
- People who care about the welfare of people with disabilities
- Any person who completes the survey must be able to access and complete the survey on their own

For questions or to request a paper copy of the survey, call:
(615) 936-8852 or
toll-free (866) 936-8852

Researchers: Robert Hodapp, Ph.D.,
& Laura Landine, B.A.